

Wendy Babcock is an International & TEDx Speaker, celebrated for sharing her passion to create a complaint-free world. Her collaboration with Will Bowen, the world authority on cultivating a culture free from complaints, has been a defining aspect of her successful speaking career. Wendy's passion for this transformative message is echoed in her impactful presentations, making her a sought-after speaker on the global stage. She has been trained and certified as a Complaint Free Trainer by the founder of the Complaint Free World movement, Will Bowen.

Alongside her commitment to reducing negativity, Wendy has authored influential works and founded The Kindness Bucket Brigade, a Facebook group dedicated to eliminating online bullying and spreading compassion. Her initiatives have gained recognition from prominent publications such as Reader's Digest and The Wisconsin State Journal and have led to appearances on major television networks like ABC, NBC, and Fox47, shining a light on her passion for promoting kindness and empowerment through positive communication.